Image	 The image is a detailed anatomical chart titled "Muscular System". It features two main figures: an anterior view of a male human figure on the left and a posterior view on the right. The muscles are rendered in a realistic red color with white connective tissue. Numerous individual muscles are labeled with lines pointing to their locations. In the center, there are two smaller diagrams: "Deep Muscles of the Back" showing the thoracic and lumbar regions, and "Muscles of the Pelvic-Abdominal Wall" showing the lower torso. At the bottom left, there is a diagram of the "Muscles of the Right Hand (Palm View)", and at the bottom right, a diagram of the "Right Hand" showing the muscles of the hand and wrist. A legend in the top right corner identifies the muscle groups by color: red for skeletal muscles, yellow for ligaments, and blue for tendons. The chart is surrounded by extensive text labels for each muscle and anatomical feature.
